$19.00

Savannah Costello, Elise Graves

2 young women are walking in the woods. Elise is finding new birds and landscapes to photograph. But she wanders into the path of a crossbow hunter who puts two bolts into her chest and stomach. Elise's death scene is not to be missed, because she truly feels the shafts inside her, stealing her life. Her struggle to stand, then her gasps as she loses consciousness are very erotic. The hunter is disrobing the body when botanist Savannah happens along and sees Elise. Rushing over, Savannah puts herself right in the crosshairs of the hunter. 2 into Savannah's chest. Then, Elise is taken to a tree and gutted.
